Welcome to this next step in your child's faith journey!

As families, we gather to celebrate important events at special meals, with favorite foods and shared stories. And as families we practice forgiveness and reconciliation, asking pardon when we hurt a loved one and forgiving others when they hurt us.

As Catholics, our community gathers to celebrate the most special of meals in the Eucharist. And in the sacrament of Reconciliation we celebrate the forgiveness that reunites us with God, the church and the community.

The sacraments are signs of Jesus' presence in the world. When you presented your children for the first sacrament of Baptism, you made a promise to raise them in the faith. Your family meals and rituals, your practice of forgiving and asking forgiveness, are your children's first experiences of sacramental life. Their preparation for celebrating the sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist has already started, with you as their first and most important teachers. Through your family involvement in the parish (your presence at the weekly Eucharist, Faith Formation classes, participation in parish activities, etc.) your child is connecting with the church family and beginning to accept your faith as his or her own.

About the Sacrament of Reconciliation

First Reconciliation (also called Confession and Penance) is celebrated at St. Joseph Community in a communal rite with individual confession and absolution. Parents and guardians help determine their child's readiness to celebrate this precious sacrament. You are their model; their readiness and understanding are impacted by your practice. If they know you appreciate and celebrate this sacrament, they will be better prepared for their celebration. After that it is your responsibility to continue to bring your children with you to the Sacrament of Reconciliation regularly.

About the Sacrament of Eucharist

A child who receives the Sacrament of Eucharist for the first time is continuing his or her initiation into the sacramental life of the whole church, a process that began at baptism. We celebrate First Eucharist as a parish community during special Saturday liturgies, to enable the children to experience our wider faith community in this important step on their faith journey.

SCHEDULE

Please mark these dates in your calendar and keep handy for future reference.

Wednesday October 13
